

Press quotes ONE SONG / Miet Warlop

“The most exalted show of the opening days eliciting a massive ovation”

* The Guardian

"Loud, preposterous and extremely entertaining"

The New York Times

“The experience of listening to one song on repeat for an hour fiddles between tedious and ecstatic. However, if you disengage, the band does not. They consistently push through to something greater. In the end, all affect is worn off, as their shirts are soaked through with sweat. Planned self-expression crumbles away to something more raw, even quasi-religious. When it was all said and done, they received a near immediate and universal standing ovation, an uncommon occurrence in Avignon.” Broadway world

“A miracle that awakened the festival with a comforting and deeply moving trance, thanks to the power of the collective.” Theatral Magazine

“A rocking primal scream bursting with zest for life, energy and humour.” De Standaard